INTRODUCING... MR. PROTEGE

Just as the world believed hip hop was closing out it's final chapter to death, then came P.S, as if to say before closing out of a letter, wait there's more to come from good music. It seems like the bling era of hip hop music may have been put on hold due to the recession. Maybe now we will run into more artists pushing music with more substance...well, don't hold your breath.

The adversary has been using music to lie and deceive the masses with his cunning style since day one. It is up to the artist to decide which side of the court they are willing to play on. There is no gray line either one or the other. With this understanding, PUSH is able to invoke the good out of people. Positivity is the main source of energy we choose to be apart of. Deciding to go along with this choice we understand Satan will do anything to bring us down just for the simple fact of knowing what we are capable of when we unite together. Together we will rise on up as one in the body of Christ, divided how we fall and united how we come. It's hard to label our music because it's more than gospel, rap, hip hop, conscious rap, etc. It's a way of life...

Protege and PUSH came to be from two very different and unique origins. Only to merge paths, at one of the most crucial points in time. Protege comes from a more street background, even with the fact of growing up in the SDA church, and has been through a lot in his life time and stared at the face of adversity plenty of times. The creator himself had a different plan of call to action in Protege's life. A life without a purpose is a life without a destination. Like a boat adrift on the ocean, there is no telling where you might end up. With no direction to your life, you will be moved by random feelings and emotions into any harbor. Two thousand years ago the Roman philosopher Seneca wrote, Our plans miscarry because they have no aim. When a man does not know what harbor he is making for, no wind is the right wind. Adrift at the mercy of random feelings or unidentified urges, you will be capable of any evil because you lack control of your own life.

The creator has revealed his purpose to Protege and has been able to build his faith, knowledge, and wisdom. Protege has put in the work to develop his craft to gain national attention. Together we have both set out on a journey for change and awakening in the turbulent world. We have started the foundation so help us build and expand the one true living God's kingdom. Support the REAL.
